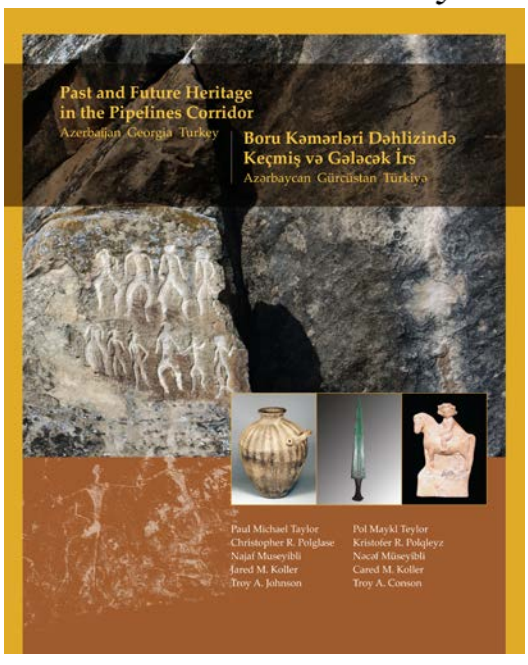
Smithsonian
National Museum of Natural History



Past and Future Heritage in the Pipelines Corridor: Azerbaijan, Georgia, Turkey
(Bilingual English & Azerbaijani edition*)

Published by the Smithsonian's Asian Cultural History Program, this full-color, exquisitely illustrated, bilingual monograph (available in English-Georgian or English-Azerbaijani versions) presents research by Paul Michael Taylor, Christopher R. Polglase, Najaf Museybili, Jared M. Koller and Troy A. Johnson, summarizing and interpreting the archaeological finds uncovered by teams of Azerbaijani, Georgian, Turkish, British, and American archaeologists during the construction of the Baku-Tbilisi-Ceyhan (BTC) and adjacent South Caucasus (SCP) pipelines, from the Caspian Sea to the Mediterranean.

[*Also available: bilingual English & Georgian edition]

Make checks payable to: Smithsonian Institution
Mail (or fax) to:
Asian Cultural History Program
Smithsonian Institution
P.O. Box 37012
NHB, Rm. 311, MRC 112
Washington DC 20013-7012, USA

Price: $ 65.00 (softcover)
$ 125.00 (hardcover)

Note: free shipping and handling.

Special offer: both editions (Georgian-English & Azerbaijani-English):
Softcover (both editions): $100.00
Hardcover (both editions): $195.00

Enclosed is my total payment of

$_____ for _____ softcover copies (English-Azerbaijani Language Edition) ($65.00 each)

$_____ for _____ hardcover copies (English-Azerbaijani Language Edition) ($125.00 each)

$_____ for _____ set(s) of both softcover copies (English-Azerbaijani and English-Georgian Language Editions) ($100 each set of two books).

$_____ for _____ set(s) of both hardcover copies (English-Azerbaijani and English-Georgian Language Editions) ($195 each set of two books).

Special current offer: free shipping and handling.

Total: $_____

Please mail my books to:

_____
Name Telephone

_____
Street Address

_____
City State Zip Code Country

Fax inquiries or institutional purchase orders to: 202-357-2208. For questions please call: 202-633-4135.