

Smithsonian
National Museum of Natural History

Produced in conjunction with Turkmenistan Culture Days in Washington, D.C. (November 28-30, 2011), celebrating Turkmenistan's 20th anniversary of independence, Turkmenistan: Ancient Arts Today provides a brief introduction to Turkmenistan and an illustrated catalog of the artworks displayed in Washington during the anniversary celebrations.

This full-color illustrated book includes chapters on "Turkmenistan Today: The Past Inspires the Present"; "History"; and "Music"; and an interpretive catalog of the exhibited artworks loaned from the Fine Arts Museum and the Main National Museum (Ashgabat, Turkmenistan).

By Paul Michael Taylor, Trevor Loomis Merrion, Jasper Waugh-Quasebarth, and William Bradford Smith, of the Asian Cultural History Program.

Make checks payable to: Smithsonian Institution

Mail (or fax*) to:

Asian Cultural History Program
Smithsonian Institution
P.O. Box 37012
NHB, Rm. 311, MRC 112
Washington DC 20013-7012, USA

Price: $14.95

Note: Free Shipping and Handling

-----
Enclosed is my total payment of $ _____ for _____ copies of Turkmenistan: Ancient Arts Today.
Please mail my books to:

_____
Name

_____
Telephone

_____
Street Address

_____
City

_____
State

_____
Zip Code

_____
Country

*Fax inquiries or institutional purchase orders to: 202-357-2208. For questions please call: 202-633-4135.